

J. ROGER GLUNT GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP IN RESIDENTIAL BUILDING CONSTRUCTION

DEADLINE: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2019

The J. Roger Glunt Fellowship is an award for full-time graduate students who are currently in, or planning to enroll in, the College of Engineering, and who are focusing on topics related to housing and residential construction, such as Architectural Engineering or Civil and Environmental Engineering. The J. Roger Glunt Fellowship was endowed in honor of Mr. Roger Glunt, past President of the National Association of Home Builders.

The applicant's graduate studies research should be related, but not limited, to various aspects of architectural and structural Engineering, architecture, construction management, land development, sustainability, energy efficiency, etc. as they relate to residential construction. The applicant is also expected to demonstrate promise of academic achievement and quality of leadership, perseverance, and dependability. The J. Roger Glunt Fellowship will provide financial resources to cover travel, research, and educational expenses. The application is available here, <http://phrc.psu.edu/Student-Education/Student-Funding/Glunt-Fellowship.aspx>, and the completed application must be submitted to Rachel Fawcett, rfawcett@enr.psu.edu, by 5pm on Friday, February 15, 2019.

For more information on this fellowship opportunity, please contact:

Dr. Ali Memari

Bernard and Henrietta Hankin Chair in Residential Building Construction

Department of Architectural Engineering | Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering

222 Sackett Building

University Park, PA 16802

814-863-9788 | memari@enr.psu.edu

Additional information on academic programs and admission procedures can be obtained at:

www.cee.psu.edu/academics/graduate/index.aspx

www.ae.psu.edu/academics/graduate/index.aspx

gradschool.psu.edu

