

2027 PHRC Membership

The vision of the Pennsylvania Housing Research Center (PHRC) is a residential construction industry equipped with the knowledge, skills, and technology to build better homes. The PHRC collaboratively engages with the residential construction industry to catalyze advancements in homebuilding through education, training, innovation, research, and dissemination of information.

Join the PHRC as a new member or renew your membership for the 2027 PHRC Membership year!

PHRC membership fees support the outreach activities of the Center and Penn State students involved in the NAHB Student Chapter. Beyond strengthening outreach for the housing industry, your membership provides numerous benefits to you, including

- registration discounts for the annual PHRC Housing Conference
- advertising opportunities
- speaking engagements
- and more!

Coffee with Chris is a PHRC member-exclusive benefit that provides a relaxed, interactive forum each month for discussing real world residential construction questions and challenges.

¹Speaking engagements may be:

- In-state or out of state up to approximately 250 miles from State College.
- Limited based on the availability of staff. Includes maximum amount of 2 hours of instruction. Does not include overnight travel.
- Upon request, the PHRC can provide continuing education certificates for attendees for PA Labor & Industry, PA engineers, AIA, ICC, and/or NARI based on session approval. As continuing education approvals require varying lead time from specific providers, please allow for a minimum of one month's notice for session approval.

²Association level is only for member-based associations. Companies must join at the Bronze level or higher. If a company joins at the Association level, you will be contacted to switch to a Bronze membership and invoiced for your remaining balance.
